

JANET'S WEDDING PLANS

Janet Jackson has not only reconciled with her former beau, Jermaine Dupri, 37, but this time she's actually started to seriously plan their wedding. "Janet and Jermaine never fell out of love, but they just started taking one another for granted," her pal explains, adding that although the pair called it quits this summer after nearly seven years together, they stayed in contact and were able to talk through most of their differences over the phone. According to the pal, Janet, 43, eventually plans to raise her late brother Michael's three children, and she feels it will be in their best interest if they have a father figure in their lives. Adds the pal, "Now they're hoping to get married early next year, and they're rushing it because after Michael's death, the family needs something to smile about."

Stephanie, 23, was at Holly Montag's birthday party with Hills co-star Stacie Hall just before her DUI arrest.

Stephanie's headed to rehab

Stephanie Pratt's recent arrest for suspicion of DUI may have finally scared the troubled Hills star straight. Just hours after Stephanie was released on bail on October 18, she confided to a pal that she was going to rehab. "Stephanie is going to enroll in an outpatient program in LA to deal with her use of alcohol," her pal explains. "Getting a DUI was the wake-up call that she needed to get professional help for her drinking problem. Like a lot of people, she needed something to shake her up. She realizes it could have been a lot worse."
